The Management
Godsglory Institute of Missions and Biblical Studies (GIMBS)
Benin City, Nigeria

Dear GIMBS,

RE: FORMAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND CONFIRMATION OF INSTITUTIONAL COLLABORATION BETWEEN WENJIBRA UNIVERSITY LLC AND GODSGLORY INSTITUTE OF MISSIONS AND BIBLICAL STUDIES (GIMBS)

On behalf of Wenjibra University LLC, doing business as Wenjibra Press and conducting academic activities through Wenjibra Institute, we are pleased to formally acknowledge and confirm the institutional collaboration established with the Godsglory Institute of Missions and Biblical Studies (GIMBS) pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding executed by both institutions on August 17, 2026.

The execution of this Memorandum of Understanding marks the formal commencement of a collaborative relationship founded upon shared interests in scholarly publishing, academic and professional development, knowledge dissemination, intellectual exchange, and the advancement of mutually beneficial institutional initiatives.

Under the framework established by the Memorandum of Understanding, Wenjibra and GIMBS have agreed to cooperate in academic journal management, joint certificate programme delivery, the organization of national and international conferences and lecture series, and collaborative book chapter publications. These areas of cooperation provide a structured foundation for both institutions to combine their respective capabilities and resources in furtherance of shared scholarly and professional objectives.

A significant component of this collaboration is the development and sustainability of two peer-reviewed scholarly journals under GIMBS: the Journal of Edoid Languages and the GIMBS Journal of African Religions. In accordance with the understanding reached, Wenjibra University LLC, acting through Wenjibra Press, will serve as the official publishing partner for both journals, providing agreed publishing support and working collaboratively with the relevant GIMBS editorial structures.

The partnership also establishes a framework for the joint design, development, and delivery of short-term and six-month certificate programmes. Certificates issued under approved joint programmes will reflect the authorized institutional identities of the collaborating parties in accordance with the provisions of the Memorandum of Understanding.

Furthermore, Wenjibra and GIMBS will collaborate in the planning, organization, and execution of academic conferences, symposia, and lecture series at national and international levels. These initiatives are intended to promote scholarly engagement, intellectual exchange, professional networking, and the dissemination of knowledge among scholars, researchers, practitioners, and other relevant stakeholders.

The collaboration additionally provides for annual calls for book chapters and edited academic volumes to be published by Wenjibra University LLC under the Wenjibra Press identity. Both institutions will collaborate on relevant editorial and review processes in accordance with the arrangements established under the Memorandum of Understanding.

Wenjibra regards this collaboration as an important institutional relationship with the potential to create sustainable platforms for scholarly publishing, professional development, academic engagement, and knowledge dissemination. We believe that the complementary capabilities of our institutions provide a strong foundation for implementing initiatives of mutual value and broader scholarly relevance.

As this collaboration commences, Wenjibra University LLC remains committed to carrying out its responsibilities in good faith and working closely with GIMBS to translate the objectives of the Memorandum of Understanding into meaningful and sustainable outcomes.

We appreciate the commitment and constructive engagement demonstrated by the leadership of the Godsglory Institute of Missions and Biblical Studies in bringing this understanding to fruition. We look forward to maintaining a relationship characterized by mutual respect, institutional integrity, effective communication, and a shared commitment to the successful implementation of the agreed areas of collaboration.

Wenjibra is therefore pleased to formally acknowledge and welcome this institutional partnership with the Godsglory Institute of Missions and Biblical Studies (GIMBS) and looks forward to a productive and mutually beneficial collaboration.

Please accept our sincere appreciation and congratulations on the successful execution of this Memorandum of Understanding.

Yours faithfully,
